

Removing Course Content from Online Study Websites

CHEGG:

Chegg will allow OCS to submit data and take down requests on behalf of faculty/instructors. Chegg will provide information as to who posted and viewed the content. Please click on the link below to fill out the form in order for OCS to initiate your request.

z.umn.edu/cheggdata

COURSE HERO:

Course Hero only allows the content creator to request removal of content from their website. Click on the link below to submit a takedown notice.

z.umn.edu/courseherodata

QUIZLET:

Quizlet allows faculty/instructors to request that test bank, exam, or quiz question/answers that they have created be removed from their website. Click on the link below to fill out the request form.

quizlet.com/testbank/request

STUDY.COM:

Study.com will remove copyrighted information, if requested by the copyright holder. They will only accept requests via mail, email, or fax. See the link below for more information.

z.umn.edu/studydata

SCRIBD.COM:

Scribd will remove copyrighted content on scribd.com and slideshare.net when requested by the copyright holder. Click on the link below to fill out the removal request form.

support.scribd.com/hc/en-us/articles/210129146

SCHOLARON.COM:

Hit the flag button above the document & provide an explanation as to why you would like the document removed.

STUDOCU.COM:

StuDocu will remove copyrighted content from their website when requested by the copyright holder. Click on the link below to fill out the removal request form.

z.umn.edu/studocudata